IN SUPPORT OF THE CITY-COUNTY COLLABORATION AND RELATED EFFORTS

WHEREAS, Cook County (the “County”) and the City of Chicago (the “City”) serve many of the same residents and operate many similar, yet independent functions; and

WHEREAS, the City and the County combined spend more than $11 billion annually on administration, health and human services, infrastructure, legislative services, public safety, regulatory functions, and other basic services; and

WHEREAS, the budget gaps of the City and County have reached over $600 million and $300 million, respectively; and

WHEREAS, the budget challenges faced by both governments require innovative methods of reducing costs and saving resources; and

WHEREAS, pooling resources, eliminating duplicate services, and improving existing services are among many possible benefits to be achieved through a collaboration between both units of government; and

WHEREAS, in March of 2011 Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle and Mayor Rahm Emanuel created a committee of civic leaders (the “Joint Committee”) to explore opportunities for the City and the County to collaborate to reduce costs, streamline government, and improve government services; and

WHEREAS, in June of 2011 the Joint Committee issued a report projecting between $66 million to $140 million in savings to be attained by 2014 through a collaboration between both units of government; and

WHEREAS, the Joint Committee has outlined 20 areas where the City and County can combine forces (the “Collaboration Areas”) to realize optimal savings and to improve services; and

WHEREAS, since the Joint Committee was formed, 20 working groups (collectively, the “Working Groups”) have been formed to address each of the Collaboration Areas; and

WHEREAS, the Working Groups have met regularly to exchange ideas and to develop strategies for the City and County to collaborate in their given Collaboration Areas; and

WHEREAS, the Joint Committee committed to issue a quarterly report to communicate the progress of these collaborative efforts, and on this day, October 4th, 2011, the first of such quarterly reports has been published; and

WHEREAS, among other things, the Joint Committee, in this first quarterly report, projects that the City and County will enjoy savings of approximately $11 million during the 2012 fiscal year due to collaborative efforts; and

WHEREAS, the Joint Committee has identified several opportunities for the improvement of City and County services, particularly in the areas of public safety, homeland security, and workforce development.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Cook County Board of Commissioners recognize the efforts of the Joint Committee in identifying methods of increasing savings and improving services for the residents of the County and the City during the relatively brief time that the Joint Committee has been in existence;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Cook County Board of Commissioners agree to support the ongoing efforts of the Joint Committee, by all necessary means, in order to implement plans for collaboration to realize projected savings and improved services for both the City and County.

Approved and adopted this 4th day of October 2011.

PRESIDENT OF THE COOK COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

WHEREAS, Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, has called a man of God who loved and was loved deeply, and whose work uplifted the lives of thousands of orphaned children, Reverend James J. Close, from our midst; and

WHEREAS, Father Close was born to Irish immigrants, Catherine and Sylvester Close, in 1936 on Chicago's North Side, and knew from childhood that he had a calling to do God's work; and

WHEREAS, after concluding his studies at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein, Illinois, Father Close was ordained a Roman Catholic priest in 1963; and

WHEREAS, Father Close spent the first ten years of his priesthood at St. John Brebeuf Parish in Niles; under his tenure, among other achievements, a new church was built and a parish athletic department was created; and

WHEREAS, Father Close was handpicked by the Archbishop of Chicago to take over the helm of Mercy Boys Home, whose then-director was of an advanced age and in ailing health; and

WHEREAS, under Father Close's leadership Mercy Boys Home underwent a staggering transformation it was enlarged, a Girls Home was created, and a therapeutic approach to treat children was adopted becoming a model for institutions nationwide; and

WHEREAS, Father Close served as a true father for those who had none; it is impossible to overestimate the impact his love and guidance had on countless children who had been neglected, abused and cast aside; and

WHEREAS, in losing Father Close we have lost a man of inspirational devotion who will be missed in the hearts of all those whom he touched and loved; and

WHEREAS, Father Close was devoted to and beloved by his family and leaves to mourn his brothers William, Hon. Michael and Leo, his sister Sr. Letitia, as well as two sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, thirteen nieces and nephews and twenty-six grandnieces and grandnephews; and

WHEREAS, while at Mercy Home Father Close uncovered a quote that became a mission statement for his life's work: "There are only two lasting bequests that we can give our children – one is roots, the other wings." Father Jim rooted his loved ones with their sense of faith, heritage and family; giving them the wings to fly onward knowing he will always be a part of them.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Toni Preckwinkle, President, and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the more than 5.4 million residents of Cook County, do hereby express our deepest condolences and most heartfelt sympathy to the family as well as to the many friends and loved ones of Reverend James J. Close; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be tendered to the family of Reverend James J. Close so that his rich legacy may be so honored and ever cherished.

A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE CHICAGO YOUTH SHOOTING REVIEW

WHEREAS, Cook County strives to implement regulations and mandate provisions to account for the public health and safety of its residents; and

WHEREAS, the Cook County Board President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners strive to make Cook County a safe and positive environment for people to live, work and raise their families; and

WHEREAS, gun violence destroys communities, neighborhoods, and families across Chicago and Cook County; and

WHEREAS, in 2009 more than one quarter of all homicide victims and more than one third of all offenders were school aged youth, under the age of 21; and

WHEREAS, shootings involving school age youth illustrate a particular failing of the system and the community within the City of Chicago and across Cook County; and

WHEREAS, Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle and Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel in cooperation with the Chapin Hall Center for Children at the University of Chicago have committed to reducing homicides involving school-aged youth by convening a collaborative, comprehensive review of the incidents through the Chicago Youth Shooting Review; and

WHEREAS, the Chicago Youth Shooting Review is an initiative of Chapin Hall Center for Children and will require the sharing of information regarding Chicago school-age shootings across and among governmental agencies and entities; and

WHEREAS, this initiative is modeled on the successful Milwaukee Homicide Review Commission which brings together law enforcement agencies from every level of government as well as community service providers to identify the gaps in prevention, intervention and response that may have led to each homicide or non-fatal shooting.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle and the Cook County Board of Commissioners supports this initiative and encourages the participation of all relevant County Offices and Agencies, including but not limited to, the Office of the Cook County State's Attorney, the office of the Medical Examiner, the Office of the Cook County Sheriff, the Office of the Chief Judge, the Judicial Advisory Council and the Office of the Public Defender to share information and collaborate in the comprehensive review of the incidents through the Chicago Youth Shooting Review; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners authorizes the Office of the Medical Examiner, and requests that the Cook County State's Attorney, the Office of the Chief Judge, the Clerk of the Circuit Court and any other County agency or office to negotiate and execute Data Share Agreements with the Chapin Hall Center for Children and the Chicago Youth Shooting review for the purposes of conducting research into homicides and non-fatal shootings involving school aged youth.
