The Public Safety System

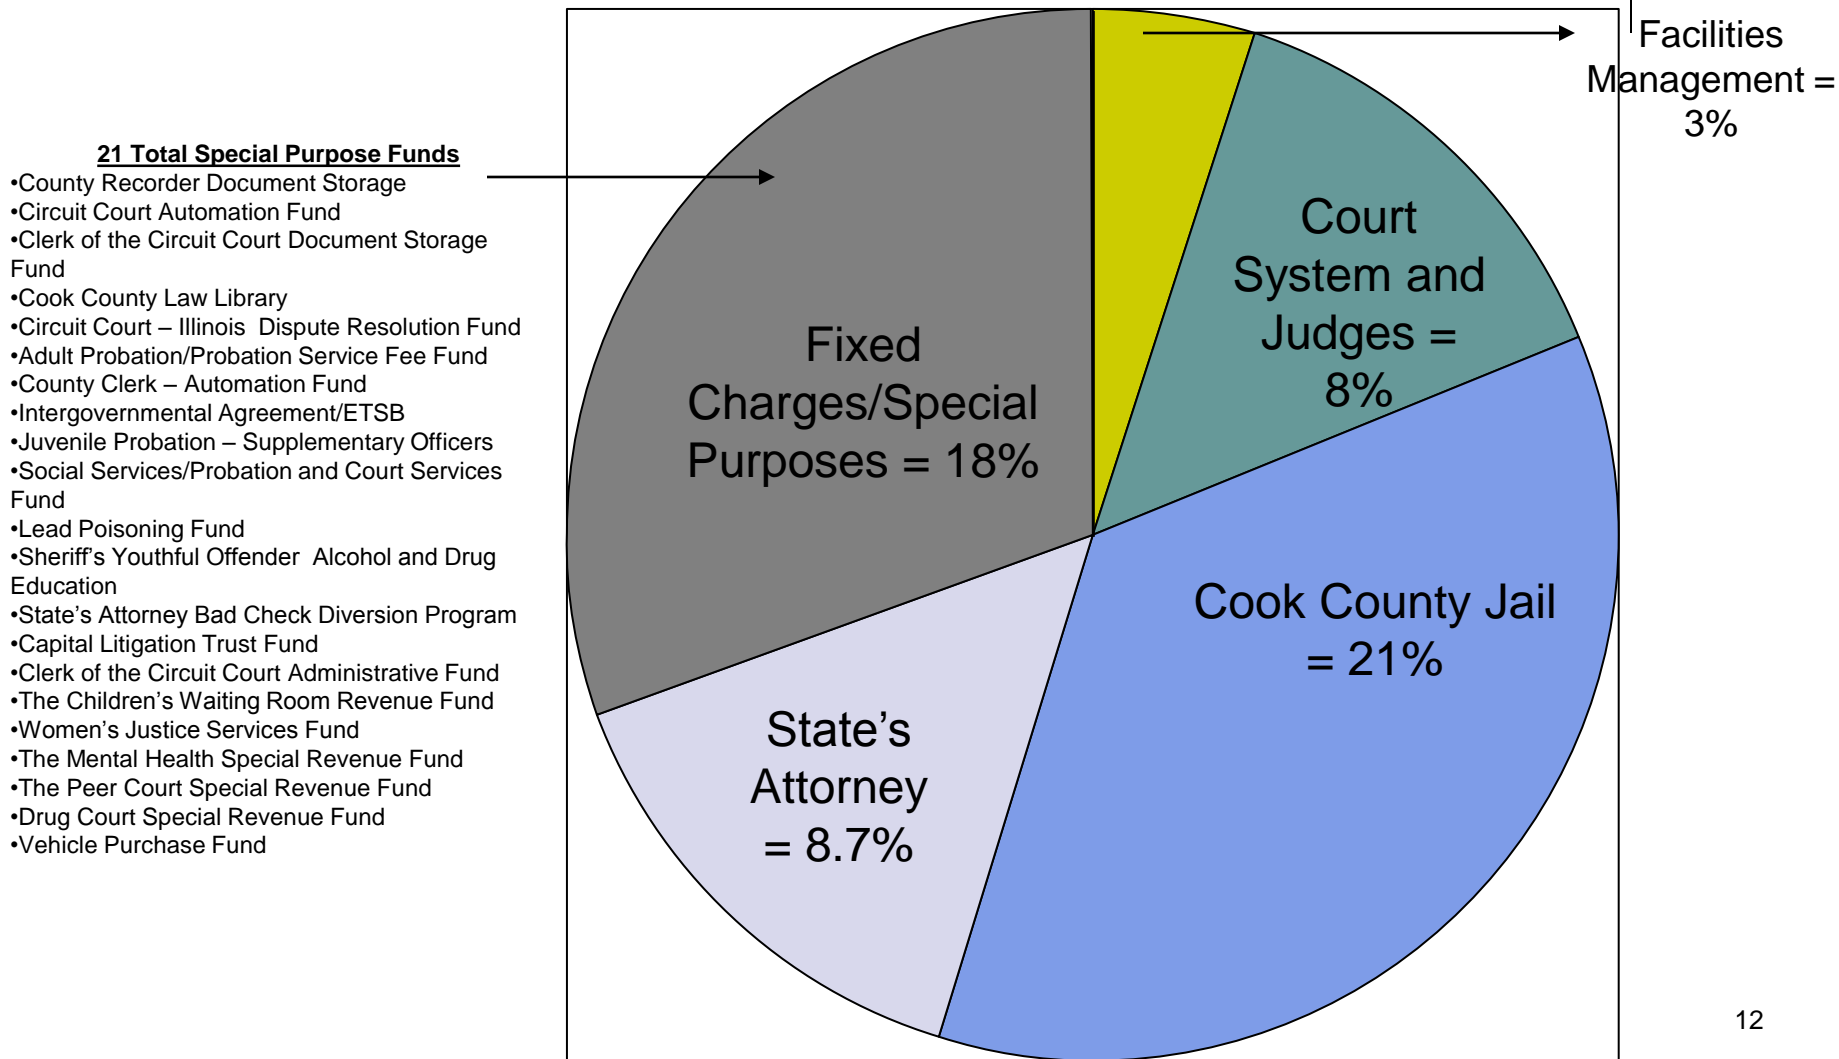

- The public safety fund comprises 32.5%, or over $1.1 billion, of the Cook County Budget and supports the largest single site jail complex and the second largest unified Court system in the nation.
- The principal offices supported by the public safety fund are the Sheriff, the Chief Judge, the State's Attorney, the Public Defender, and the Clerk of the Circuit Court.
- The Cook County Sheriff is responsible for overseeing the Cook County Jail, providing security and services to all County court facilities, and policing unincorporated areas of the County. Nearly 100,000 people cycle through the Cook County jail each year and at any given time there are approximately 9,000 detainees in the Cook County Jail.
- The Cook County State's Attorney is the County's attorney, with more than 1,360 employees, the office prosecutes criminal offenses and assists victims and witnesses in those cases. The State's Attorney also represents the County in all civil litigation against the County.
- The Cook County Public Defender, the second largest indigent defense organization in the country, provides free legal counsel to those who are charged with a criminal offense who are unable to afford private representation. These legal services are required under the United States Constitution and the Illinois Public Defender Act. The Public Defender is also statutorily required to represent those subject to the Juvenile Court Act, which includes abused and neglected minors.
- The Chief Judge's Office is responsible for the administration of the Circuit Court of Cook County, which is part of the state judiciary branch. The Chief Judge oversees approximately 400 judges and an additional 2,100 non-judicial employees who provide logistical support and legal research to the judges who hear civil and criminal cases. The Chief Judge also oversees the Adult and Juvenile Probation Departments who monitor and provide treatment services to adult and juvenile offenders.
- Similar to the Office of the Chief Judge, the Office Clerk of the Circuit Court is part of the state judicial branch. The Clerk of the Circuit Court is an independently elected official who is charged with keeping all of the records for the Circuit Court of Cook County including civil, criminal, traffic, and juvenile cases. Under Illinois law, clerks are required to attend all sessions of the Circuit Court and collect and disburse all filing fees and fines for the Circuit Court. Over 1.6 million new cases are filed in Cook County each year.

$1.1 billion / 32.5% - Total FTE 14,411.5

Administration and General Taxing Bodies

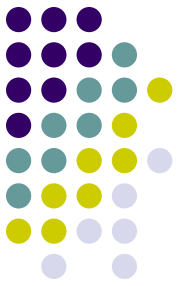

- The Corporate Fund comprises just 5.6%, or about $201 million of the Cook County Budget. This fund supports the general government management and support services for the County. Although, the corporate fund amounts to a small fraction of the Cook County budget it is the portion of the budget that most impacts all Cook County Citizen's daily lives.
- Includes financial oversight and reporting functions, payment of bills and contract awards and oversight, economic and human development, the maintenance of highways, and environmental monitoring and control, homeland security coordination, capital planning and policy. This fund also supports the assessment, administration and collection of the property tax, sales tax, and various fees.
- The Corporate Fund also supports several independent elected officials whom together oversee the property tax system. The Cook County Assessor is responsible for assessing the value of each of the 1.7 million parcels of real property in Cook County. The Cook County Board of Review then hears citizen's appeals of the property tax assessment made by the Assessor. The Cook County Treasurer is the County's banker, responsible for mailing the tax bills, collecting the taxes on those parcels of real property and distributing the revenue throughout the County. The Cook County Recorder of Deeds maintains the land records for the County including records of all real estate transactions.
- The Cook County Clerk maintains all of the County records and books including birth, death and marriage records.

Capital Improvement Projects

Capital Improvement Projects - $519 million/14.5% of total budget
General Obligation Bonds are issued with the proceeds of the sales purposed to finance the costs of capital projects throughout the County.
