Jamba Juice on Belmont and Clark Launches October Promotion to Raise Funds for the Weisman Park Renovation.

CHICAGO –(October 1, 2009) Weisman Park Advisory Council is pleased to announce Jamba Juice locations at 920 W. Belmont and 2800 N. Clark launched their Weisman Park benefit promotion today. For the entire month of October just mention Weisman Park when you place your order at the store or when you call in to place your food order for delivery. Jamba Juice will donate 20% of the entire purchase to the renovation fund.

Christopher Belanger, General Manager of the Belmont store said “Jamba Juice welcomes the opportunity to help the Council raise money for this important community project. It is part of our mission to support the neighborhoods and communities where we do business.”

Jamba Juice is now offering food and delivery service from these locations. During this promotional period it's a great time to sample from their new food menu and have it delivered to your door. Go to www.jamba.com to see their complete menu.

Weisman Park is located on the 900 block of Oakdale at Mildred. The park serves more than 5000 residents in the area. Fund raising for this $750,000 renovation began in spring 2008, to date approximately $300,000 has been raised.

To make a donation or to discuss how you can host a benefit at your establishment contact mariepoppy@comcast.net. The Weisman Park Advisory Council appreciates all the support from the community and local business helping to make this community project possible.

Weisman Park Advisory Council is registered with the Chicago Park District and recognized as the official organization for the park. The Parkways Foundation is the council's fiscal agent and a 501-3C nonprofit organization.
